

IOM International Organization for Migration
OIM Organisation Internationale pour les Migrations
OIM Organización Internacional para las Migraciones

The International Organization for Migration (IOM) in collaboration with the Government of Suriname through the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (Ministerie van Buitenlandse Zaken)

Is seeking a
“Research Assistant Consultant”
With the following profile:-

University degree in Social Sciences or a related field, and minimum two years of relevant professional experience in quantitative and qualitative research. High level of ability with data analysis and statistical software packages is required (excellent knowledge of SPSS preferable). Fluent Dutch and excellent English are required.

General functions:

The successful candidate will provide assistance to a senior research consultant in order to support a study on the existing skill gaps in Suriname’s public, private and civil society sectors. This will include the following general functions:

- Collection and analysis of literature
- Assisting with interviews/round tables
- Administering surveys
- Processing and analyzing data (including survey data) in SPSS and Excel
- Conducting internet research
- Collecting research reports and other data from local agencies and organizations
- Providing support with drafting text for the final report

Remuneration:

Remuneration commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Interested candidates are invited to send their application (CV and cover letter) in English to iomguyana@iom.int quoting the position “Research Assistant Consultant - Suriname” in the subject line no later than 11:59pm on 26th April, 2017.

Detailed Terms of Reference can be requested via email address at: iomguyana@iom.int